

NAME: HAY, William

PLACE OF BIRTH: St. Andrew's MB ENTERED SERVICE: 18 May 1905 DATES: 20 Aug. 1866-1947

Appointments & Service

Outfit Year*:	Position:	Post:	District:	HBCA Reference:
*An Outfit year ran from 1 June to 31 May
1901-1903	Second Engineer	S.S. Wrigley	Mackenzie River	A.81/10-11
1904-1906	Second Engineer	S.S. Wrigley	Mackenzie River	A.81/13-14; D.38/57, #1133
1906-1907	First Engineer	S.S. Wrigley	Mackenzie River	A.81/15
1907-1909	Engineer	S.S. Wrigley	Mackenzie River	A.81/16-17
1909-1912	Engineer		Mackenzie River*	A.81/18-20
1922-1923	Engineer	S.S. Inenew	James Bay	RG3/40A/1

* The 'Fur Trade Directories', ca. 1910-1912, list W. Hays as Engineer, S.S. Slave River, Athabasca District. RG3/11B/1-3

He was baptized at St. Andrews on 28 October 1866, the son of E.H.G.G. (Edward) Hay and Frances Gibson. PAM, Anglican Parish Registers

Photographs: HBCA Photo Coll., 1987/363-M-400/31, group photo at Fort Smith, 1909

HBCA Photo Coll., 1987/363-E-711/21, group photo at Athabasca Transport Office, 1908 [Hay is identified]

Papers in Provincial Archives of Manitoba: Edward Henry George Gunson Hay Collection, P5485-P5487, includes correspondence from Hay to his family. William Hay Collection, P5488, includes papers concerning his employment with the HBC and a letter from Mary Mandeville, the mother of his son, dated Fort Smith, 25 July 1912.

